

NABL Accreditation for Avitech Analytical Division

Avitech Analytical Division was assessed by the National Accreditation Board for Testing and Calibration Laboratories (NABL) in the field of testing and was granted accreditation in accordance with ISO/IEC 17025:2005.

NABL is a society registered under Societies Registration Act, 1860 and is an autonomous body under the aegis of Department of Science & Technology, Government of India. It has been established with the objective of providing the Government, Regulators and Industry with a scheme of laboratory accreditation through third party assessment for formally recognising the technical competence of laboratories.

The certificate of accreditation was issued on 3rd February 2017 and is valid till 2nd February 2019.

Avitech Analytical Division has further strengthened its position as a leading Animal Nutrition Analytical Laboratory in India with this accreditation.
