

Avitech achieves ISO 22000 and GMP status

In a recent and noteworthy development, Avitech Nutrition received ISO 22000:2005 (Food Safety Management System) and GMP certification from DNV-GL Netherlands, for manufacture of feed premixes and feed additives for livestock feeds and concentrates.

These achievements are a testimony to Avitech's continued focus and further advancements in the area of quality assurance in all that they offer to the animal feed industry not only in India but the many countries where they operate. These certifications will also help to open new opportunities for the company in terms of the international markets.
